NUMBER 37

New Members of the Faculty.

MUSIC.

Miss Eliza Gibbs, of Mexico, Mo., will have charge of the Music Department. Testimonials in part:

To whom it may concern:
This is to certify that Miss Eliza Gibbs graduated in the piano department of this institution May, 1908, with honor to herself and credit to the department. Her record throughout was excellent. Believing her to possess all the essentials for the making of a good teacher, we cordially commend her to anyone desiring the services of a good musician and a fine Christian woman.

(Signed) J. Emory Shaw,
Dean Music Dept.

Christian College, Columbia, Mo.
Miss Eliza Gibbs studied singing with me during the past season. Her voice is high Soprano of sympathetic and velvety quality. She is very musical, singing with much temperament and good taste.

Miss Gibbs comes of a most excellent family; her mother is a well-known musician and singer of Mexico.

(Signed) (Mrs.) May Beasley Adam,
Director Voice Dept., Hardin College, Conservatory of Music.

EXPRESSION AND PHYSICAL CULTURE.
Miss Edna David, of Dillon, S. C., will have charge of the department of Expression and Physical Culture.

Miss David has devoted five years to the study of Expression and Physical Culture; two years at Greenville Female College, Greenville, S. C., one year at the Womans' College, Richmond, Va., and two years at the School of Expression, Boston, Mass. She holds a General Culture Diploma and, also, a diploma in the Normal Course of Physical Culture, and now at the close of Post Graduate work has received a third-year diploma from the Boston School of Expression. Testimonials in part:

Miss Edna David, of Dillon, S. C., was a student in this institution during the season 1906-1907. Miss David did excellent work in all her classes. In English and Philosophy she was graduated with distinction. In Expression Miss David's work was of a high order. In recognition of which she was awarded a certificate of Proficiency. As a student, she is painstaking and faithful. In person, she is attractive and graceful. I cordially commend her.

James Nelson,

Pres. Womans' College, Richmond, V.

It is with great pleasure I respond to a request to write you concerning the attainments of Miss Edna David for the position of teacher of Expression in the school you represent.

Miss David was educated at Greenville Female College, Greenville, S. C., and has taken the Expression Course in the School of Expression, Boston, S. S. Curry, Ph. D. Litt. D., President. She also holds special Teacher's Gymnastic Certificate.

I would cordially recommend Miss David as one whose attainments and educational value warrant us in expecting real success from her as a teacher. Shall be glad to answer further inquiries concerning Miss David.

Anna B. Curry, Dean.

COMMERCIAL AND PRIMARY DEPARTMENTS

Miss Louise Hancock, of Ruston, La., will have charge of both the Commercial Department and the Primary. Hours for the latter will be from 9 a. m. to 2:30 p. m.

In order to secure the services of a teacher proficient in both departments we have had to pay Miss Hancock more than any other teacher. There need be no conflict between the two departments, and by combining the two, we feel that we are able to offer better advantages in both. Testimonials in part:

Miss Louise Hancock's work as instructor in Stenography in this institution is entirely satisfactory. Her general education is broad, she having completed the full college course at the Louisiana Industrial Institute. In her class-room work she is careful and painstaking. I consider Miss Hancock a first-class teacher in every way.

(Signed) Harry Howard,
Prin. Commercial Dept.

Ruston, La., May 1, 1908.

To whom it may concern:

Miss Louise Hancock, who makes application to you for the position of shorthand instructor, has been working in the stenographic department of this institution for the past year under my supervision. During this time, she has taken a thorough teachers' training course, has prepared for and successfully passed the very rigid teachers' examination in stenography and typewriting given by the Phonographic Institute Cincinnati, O., and now holds a Certificate of Proficiency signed by Benn Pitman himself. She has had entire charge of the typewriting files and has been the means of bringing that department up to a standard it has never before attained.

From a close observation of her excellent discipline, her careful, attentive and painstaking instruction, I am in a position to say for Miss Hancock, that she is one of the best teachers of stenography and typewriting that I have ever known. The school that secures her services will be most fortunate indeed.

Respectfully, (Signed)

Daisy M. Kelley,
Head of Department Stenography Typewriting.
Neilson & Moss, Principals of Lindsey-Wilson.

Execution Sale.

To satisfy Execution No. 1821 which issued from the office of the Clerk of the Adair Circuit Court on the 11th day of May 1909, in favor of The Bank of Columbia and against C. R. Payne and John W. Lost Child Found.

Last Friday night, about dark, the whole neighborhood of Craycraft, this county, was thrown into a terrible state of excitement and Mr. and Mrs. Porter Murrell were frantic with grief. Their little daughter, Hylie, three years old was playing about the yard, and after so long a time she was missed, her mother thinking that she was with her father, but when he returned to the house and reported that he had not seen her, great excitement reigned and the neighborhood was aroused and a search instituted. After a search of two hours the child was found one and a quarter miles from home, in dense woodland, lying in a path, sound asleep. The child was picked up and carried to her parents who clapped their hands with joy, all the people rejoicing with them. This should be a warning to all parents and a close watch should be kept on the little ones.

Will Play at the Chautauqua.

Mr. R. H. Durham, manager of the Columbia Baseball Team, was in Lebanon last Friday and perfected an arrangement whereby the Columbia Team plays in the contest at the Lebanon Chautauqua, which begins July 23 and continues until August 7. Five teams have entered as follows:
New Haven,
Greensburg,
Lebanon,
Campbellsville,
Columbia.

The clubs contest for a cup, and the club winning the highest number of points will be awarded the prize. The Columbia aggregation will go after the prize in earnest.

You can't afford to miss the Pea Ridge Fair. More than $80 will be given in prizes, for exhibitions of small animals, Athletics, Baseball and Music. Call on or write Geo. Hancock, Secretary, for a catalogue.

Delightfully Entertained.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Hurt entertained in honor of Mr. Porter A. Strange, of Jacksboro, Texas, who was visiting at his old home. Invitations were extended to the following friends:

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell,
Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Russell,
Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Miller,
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bradshaw,
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coffey,
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Coffey, Jr.,
Mrs. Mont Cravens,
Mrs. J. W. Coy,
Mrs. L. C. Hurt,
Dr. R. Y. Hindman,
Mr. J. W. Flowers,
Mr. John Lee Walker,
Mr. Tim Cravens,
Mr. H. T. Baker,
Misses Bess Rowe, Betsy Hancock, Martha Hancock, Katie Murrell, Lorena Pile, Julia Eubank, Frances Jones, Mable Atkins, Hattie Lewis, Mamie Baker.

The home was brilliantly lighted, the parlors handsomely decorated, and a most delightful repast was served. Dinner over, the company resumed seats in the parlors; where several hours were spent in social converse and in listening to the inspiring music. It was an evening of pleasure, an occasion that will long be remembered by those who were present.

Notice to Holders of State Warrants.

This office is informed that in the future the Auditor will discontinue sending Treasurers checks for amounts due claimants, but instead will mail his warrants to claimants, thereby causing them the necessity, and danger of misdirection and possible loss in the mails, by remailing the warrants to the Treasurer for payment.

As a matter of safety and convenience to those receiving warrants, as well as to this office, I would suggest and advise that all warrants sent out by the Auditor be deposited with your local bank for collection.

It will probably not be possible to pay all warrants just yet, but those we are unable to pay will be returned with checks for those that are paid.

If the above suggestions are complied with, payments can be made with more promptness, and possible loss through the mails reduced to a minimum.

Very Truly,
E. Farley, State Treasurer.

Tarter Wins.

Eleven members of the Adair County Republican Committee met here in the Court-house last Thursday to hear proof in a contest instituted by Mr. J. K. P. Conover against Mr. A. W. Tarter, who was declared the nominee of said party for the office of jailer at the late primary. Mr. Conover was the contending candidate against Mr. Tarter. He claimed that he was defeated by unfair means, hence the contest. Montgomery & Montgomery, and F. R. Winfrey representing Mr. Conover and W. W. Jones and James Garnett appeared for Mr. Tarter. Several witnesses were introduced, and after all the proof on both sides was in the case was submitted to the committee without argument. The vote stood, 8 for Tarter, 2 for Conover. One committeeman was excused from voting.

An Old Coin.

Mr. M. A. Loy exhibited at this office two coins, one a penny made in 1819 which is larger than a twenty-five cent piece of to-day. The other was so old and worn that the date of its coinage could not be determined but it has George Washington's picture and was evidently made a short time after The Delaware was crossed. But little interest is found in the old monies of the country, the new having displaced them in the hustling activities of trade, but occasionally a piece is found that drifts the mind back to the days of long ago, when our Republic was an infant compared with many others. To day it is a giant and its new coins are sought throughout the world.

Children's Day at Poplar Hill.

Eld. Leslie Bottom writes us that he recently attended Children's Day exercises at Poplar Hill, and was highly entertained. He states that preparations had been in progress for some time, and when the day arrived the Hill was covered with people, young and old. Every boy and girl who was on the program were present, and that they rendered their selections most admirably. At the noon hour a magnificent dinner was spread which was highly enjoyed by the many present. The people of Poplar Hill are hospitable and take a great delight in entertaining. It was certainly a great pleasure to the older persons to see the younger set enjoy themselves.

You cannot afford to miss the show Monday. Remember it is a strictly clean moral exhibit in every particular. Good music by our famous Brass Band and our performances is giving the show going public full satisfaction for their money. So come along and bring the children and let them enjoy themselves.

To Our Customers.

Having bought the interest of Jo Russell and A. S. Chewning in the business of Russell & Co., we will continue for 30 days to close out the remaining stock and collect indebtedness due the firm. About September 1st we will put in a new stock of Fall goods in the building we now occupy and hope to have the public call on us.

J. O. Russell,
Jno. Lee Walker.

The Pea Ridge Fair, the product of some of our enterprising boys, will be held on the grounds of the L. W. T. S. Park Saturday, Aug. 14th, beginning at 1 o'clock. This exhibition will eclipse all former efforts at Fair work and will afford a day of amusement and pleasure for the many who will attend. The programme will be full of laughable features from start to finish, while a splendid ball game will be pulled off in the afternoon. The boys will distribute over thirty dollars in prizes. They will have music and Lemonade and it will do you good to be there. Price of admission for adults only 20 cents, for those under 14 only 10 cents.

Miss Cynthia Bennett, who was a daughter of Mr. Ed Bennett, died at the home of her brother, Mr. Roy Bennett, near Glenville, last Thursday morning. She was a victim of consumption and had been sick for several months.

Russell Loses an old Citizen.

Mr. Shorrod Hudson, eighty-three years old, who had been a resident of Russell county for many years, died at his late home, two miles from Jamestown, Thursday, the 15th inst. He was a soldier in the Federal army during the civil war and was in a number of hard fought battles. He leaves a wife and a step son. The interment was near his late residence.

A number of Miss Zella Pelley's young friends "stormed" her last Friday evening, and several hours were spent in games and listening to delightful music.

W. L. Russell, of Knifey, bought of J. R. Wade the Red Bird Stallion known as Gray Lexington for $300. This horse is said to be one of the best breeders in Adair county.

Notice to Taxpayers.

I am now ready to receive your taxes for the year 1909. The Adair Fiscal Court at a special term held on the 25th day of June made an additional levy of 10c on the $100 valuation of taxable property, and 25c poll tax for School purposes. This necessitated a change of the entire County with the exception of the Columbia Graded School District, which change has been made on my books and I trust that every tax payer in Adair County will come forward and settle at once. The Poll tax is now $1.25 and 74c on the $100.00.
